The alternatives are not eternal suffering or eternal bliss, but literally eternal life or eternal death. The Day of Judgment For a fire is kindled by my anger, and shall burn to the lowest hell; it shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Proponents of "episodic creation" also appeal to a variety of arguments based on science to support their claims. Thus, we have the argument that evolutionary continuity is scientifically impossible because, for example, the fossil record fails to support Darwin's idea of the gradual development of new forms of life and that, accordingly, we

In 2009, Christopher Johnson founded Creation Liberty Evangelism from a God-given calling to teach the truth of His Word. Today, creationliberty.com has become a reliable source of information for continued study in the Word of God, bringing the message of repentance and remission of sins (Luke 24:47) through the blood of Christ (Col 1:14) to the perishing people of this world (2Pe 3:9), while

This One manifests Itself in and through all creation, but is not absorbed by Its creation. The manifest universe is the body of God; it is the logical and necessary outcome of the infinite self-knowingness of God. We believe in the individualization of the Spirit in Us, and that all people are individualizations of the One Spirit.

The New Science (Italian: La Scienza Nuova pronounced [la ʃˈʃɛntsa ˈnwɔːva]) is the major work of Italian philosopher Giambattista Vico. It was first published in 1725 to little success, but has gone on to be highly regarded and influential in the philosophy of history, sociology, and anthropology. The central concepts were highly original and prefigured the Age of Enlightenment.

Over a century after the Array’s activation, the Bornstellar Makes Eternal Lasting, formerly the IsoDidact, viewed a recording from the Librarian relaying the Gravemind’s message. He shared the recording with Chant-to-Green and both realized the consequences of the loss of the Domain.

Personally, I’m not convinced that Aristotle had as big an impact on early church history as Plato did. Aristotle’s ideas were certainly around at the time, but they seem to have been somewhat lost for a time, at least from western Christianity, until their ‘rediscovery’ through Islamic philosophers in the 11th and 12th centuries, and reintroduction through the Iberian Peninsula (Spain).

Celtic mythology does not propose a single version or description of the creation as a whole, as other religions and mythologies do, but a few Celtic myths mention that heaven and earth was created by giants, considered by this peoples group to be the ancient original gods. According to another Celtic myth, the creation took place by the primordial, first god who, by means of a melody played

Creation, by definition, is beyond the rules of the natural world. Since God cannot be tested, so the argument goes, creation and/or intelligent design cannot be considered science. Strictly speaking, evolution cannot be observed or tested any more or less than intelligent design, but that does not seem to be an issue with non-believing
